A No, I didn't.

Q What happened? Were you burned when this happened, when he touched you with this thing?

A Was I burned? I wasn't burned; I was just stunged, you know.

Q You were stung? I mean, it felt like an electrical current to you?

A Yes.

QO Did you twitch and jump or something?

A Yes, I jumped.

Q Did you hurt yourself? whThe hands that were cuffed, did they get cut, or anything when you jumped and twitched?

A Well, I got them bruised, but the position I was in when I was handcuffed--

Q What did you get bruised?

A Just bruised from my wrists, from being hand-

Q Both wrists?

A Yes.

Q Was there any blood coming out of your wrist?

A No.

Q Was the bruise visible for a couple of days then; take a while to heel?

A I don't know. With my complexion, I really couldn't tell.

- Q How long was it sore?
- A I was sore about, to the next day.
- Q It stopped hurting you before you left Area 2 then, is that right?
 - A Yes.
- Q Were there any other things done to you on the 5th? Any other kinds of torture or beatings on you, any physical contact on the 5th?
 - A Electrical device on the 5th, and when--
 - Q: I'm sorry. What was your answer?
 - A No.
- Q And this is all pretty clear in your memory, isn't it?
 - A Yes; it's not that clear, but it's true.
- Q You are sure that happened to you, is that right?
 - A Positive it happened.
 - Q And you know it happened on the 5th, right?
 - A I know it happened on the 5th.
- Q And the reason you know it happened on the 5th is because you heard that the policeman was shot, right? That's why you were there?

A Yes, I had. Yes, I knew. I knew the police was shot.

- Q When did you learn about that?
- A Later on that evening I heard it.
- Q What evening?
- A The -- Friday.
- Q How did you hear about that?

A I heard the officer, I heard one of the officers tell the lieutenant.

Q Tell them what happened, that an officer had been shot?

A Well, he didn't say an officer got shot, he just beckoned for him to come out of the room, and when he left out of the room and came back in, I overheard.

Q Some officer begged Lieutenant Burge to come out of the room?

MS. WATSON: "Beckoned" was the testimony, your Honor.

MR. GOLDSTEIN: Okay, thank you.

Q Is that while Lieutenant Burge was torturing you with the electrical device?

So, that was put -- was there any more torturing after that with the electrical device by Lieutenant Burge?

No. Α

So, this would have all been while you were being prodded with this electrical device when Lieutenant Burge was first told about the policeman being shot then, is that correct?

Not right then, no. No.

You were just asked to swear to the fact in this motion that your attorney has presented this morning, weren't you?

Yes.

Is your testimony now that the torture continued until the police officer, the call was received that the police officer was shot on a bus; that's your testimony in the motion, is it not?

A. Yes.

And your testimony now is that the torturing was over before the call was received?

MS. WATSON: Your Honor --

THE COURT: Do you know when the call was received?

THE WITNESS: Well, I know when I overheard them, what it was, I know when I overheard the officer saying that he was going out on the police shooting.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. GOLDSTEIN: Q Then they left you alone all night, right?

A Yes.

Q And you just stayed in that room, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q And you were never taken to a cell, is that correct?

A Yes, that's correct.

Q Yes, it's correct?

A Yes, that's correct.

Q You never went to a cell?

A No.

Q Didn't you just swear to, in front of this Court this morning, that after the torture continued for an extensive period of time, a call was received that a police officer had been shot on a bus, at which time a defendant was taken to a cell? Didn't you just swear to that this morning?

MS. WATSON: That was my mistake on the cell.

THE WITNESS: A No. No, I didn't.

THE COURT: I'll let the answer stand.

MR. GOLDSTEIN: I'm sorry, Judge. I couldn't hear what you said.

THE COURT: I said I will let his answer stand.

MR. GOLDSTEIN: Q When was the next time you saw a police officer?

MS. WATSON: Objection to the form of the question.

THE COURT: Next time, from when?

MR. GOLDSTEIN: I'll rephrase it.

Q After Lieutenant Burge was told about the police officer being shot, you were left alone by all the police officers, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q And you were left in that room.

When was the next time after that that you saw another police officer that came to question you or talk to you?

A That was, I don't know exactly the time, but it was earlier that morning. The Lieutenant was coming in and out.

MR. GOLDSTEIN: Q The Lieutenant was coming in and out after he had been told that the officer had been shot?

 - Q Did you?
 - A No, I didn't. I couldn't.
- Q And then how many times did Lieutenant Burge come back and question you then that night, the night of the 5th of February now, Friday night?
- A That night? This was like in the morning, because this was like about 3:00 in the morning, something like that. Still in the building.
- Q What time would you say it was that Lieutenant Burge was told about the police officer being shot?

MS. WATSON: Objection; asked and answered.

THE COURT: He can answer it one more time.

You may answer.

THE WITNESS: A Wasn't a clock in there. I can't say the exact time.

A Officer Sweeney.

A Yes.

Q When was the first time that Officer McWeeny came into the room where you were?

A Yes.

Q: How many times?

A He was in and out. Like I said, 10:30 at night when he came in, when McWeeny was in there, he was in and out asking McWeeny, have I talked to him.

Q No. Let me go back. I'm not sure you under-stand my question.

You testified that he hit you on the head with the stapler at 10:00 o'clock in the morning, right?

A About that time. I can't be sure.

Q When was the next time you saw Lieutenant Burge in your room?

A Next time I seen Lieutenant Burge in the room was evening, that evening.

Q You were left alone for almost 12 hours then, is that right, 10:00 in the morning until 10:00 in the evening?

MS. WATSON: Objection, Judge. He's testifying that Lieutenant Burge was continuously in and out of the room on two occasions. He said that to the Court twice.

"NGAB LOYOUNE, 107082

MS. WATSON: No, Judge.

THE COURT: You may step down, sir. Thank you.

(Witness excused.)

MS. WATSON: We'd rest, Judge.

THE COURT: Defense rests. Any rebuttal?

MR. GOLDSTEIN: No.

THE COURT: You wish to make opening-closing argument?

MS. WATSON: Well, Judge, we'd only indicate that we feel that the motion that is presently before the Court is one that is absolutely one of credibility; that there should be no, that we never expected the police officers were going to get on the stand say they had shocked Mr. Jones; that they had hit him in the head; that they had beaten him or that they had tortured him in any manner, but we did put Mr. Jones on the stand.

We presented him before your Honor. We believe he was a credible witness before your Honor. We asked him to address himself directly to your Honor. He did speak directly to your Honor. He kept his voice up so that your Honor could hear him and we believe that Mr. Jones' testimony is credible. We do not believe there ever was a waiver of his Miranda Rights.

We do not believe Mr. Jones ever received his Miranda Warnings.

There has been no contradictory testimony to indicate that Mr. Jones was ever allowed to make any type of telephone call or that he was ever allowed to call his attorney, et cetera. Mr. Jones has indicated that he asked to see a lawyer. Lieutenant Burge says he didn't hold him incommunicado, but somebody held him incommunicado at someone's direction, and Lieutenant Burge says that he is in fact the area commander.

He says he was in charge of the Mayfield investigation. These other officers that testified were under him. There was some reason, your Honor, why Mr. Jones was held at that station from Friday until Sunday morning.

The testimony by these police officers is not worthy of credibility by this Court. From the complete and detailed description that Mr. Jones has given you as to exactly the kind of instrument that was used, the way it was used, where it was applied, and all of the different things that happened to him in that station, and the testimony that you have had here from Lieutenant Burge -- "I talked to him a half hour one"

10,7002

"time; I talked to him a half hour another time."

Another detective says he didn't ask him anything, that "I asked him about the homicide and I left right out."

Detective McGuire says that he talked to him about an hour and he gets no statement.

All of them are saying Mr. Jones is doing all of this talking, but there are no statements.

There are no written waivers, there are no court reporters called in to take any statements. There's continued questioning obviously on the part of the police officers, and Mr. Jones has said he never waived his Miranda Rights, and if Mr. Jones were actually making a statement, if he were voluntarily giving information to the police, then there would be some type of a written waiver.

working for the Chicago Police Department for extensive years. They are indicating that, the State is indicating that all of this was done voluntarily on Mr. Jones' behalf. Why is there no voluntary written waiver? Why was there no court reporter called in to indicate that they were present while the statement was being made? We feel that, and Mr. Jones has indicated that he never made a statement of any kind.

We feel that if the Court believes that the statement was made and the statement was adduced, that it was definitely a violation of the 5th Amendment rights, and that Mr. Jones' rights were violated, because he was physically tortured and he was compelled to self-incriminate himself.

We believe also that the failure to provide

LAGAB CL., L. (ONNE, 107002

We believe also that the failure to provide the lawyer, and the continuing interrogation is sufficient, if it is to require suppressing any alleged statement, that McWeeny says was made, and any alleged statement is inadmissible when it's taken from a defendant, when he requests counsel and is denied the opportunity to consult with one. We feel that it is very strange that he was held at that station for that extensive period of time, and he was never allowed to call anyone, and that all of these things -- and he was not taken to bond court on Saturday morning.

The allegation is that he was arrested early Friday afternoon, and if he was arrested for a UUW earlier Friday afternoon, he would have been in bond court on Saturday morning. He was not taken to bond court on Saturday morning; he was kept in that station for something and all of these things that he has detailed to your Honor were in fact going on at that time.

We feel his 14th Amendment rights were violated. We feel his 5th Amendment rights were also violated, and we feel that the motion to suppress should be sustained.

THE COURT: Counsel?

MR. GOLDSTEIN: Judge, if they wanted to torture him or beat him, they would have done it. It would have shown some effect. Clearly he didn't.

Secondly, all this various claims, tortures and intimidations and threats, lead to nothing, according to the defendant. He never gave any kind of a statement of any kind relating to any offense. It's strictly a matter of credibility.

Your Honor heard the evidence and the witnesses. I'm sure you have your own impression of the credibility of each of those witnesses. I'll await your ruling.

THE COURT: On the 4th Amendment motion I'm going to deny the motion to suppress.

I think that by a preponderance of the evidence the allegations contained in the motion have been overcome by the testimony of the State's witnesses, and I don't find the defendant's testimony on that particular question to be particularly credible or corroborated.

MR. GOLDSTEIN: I think you said overcome by the State's witnesses.

THE COURT: I said it was, the allegation of the motion were overcome by the testimony of the State's witnesses. I said the testimony of the defendant on that particular issue was not particularly credible nor corroborated.

On the 5th Amendment motion however, I find it peculiar that the defendant is arrested on February 5th, 1982 at 2:15 in the afternoon, and I'm just going to reasonably infer that the charges here arise out of the fact that the officers saw, during that arrest, rather than something that happened at the police station while he was in custody; and for basically two and a half days he's kept in custody and constantly questioned, even basically told Officer Flood that he didn't really want to talk.

I think that basically became clear when Detective or Lieutenant Burge -- the red-headed policeman -- Lieutenant Burge testified, obviously, or he gave the very clear impression to me that the defendant didn't want to talk because of what he was saying to the defendant. The defendant exercised his right to remain silent and he was held for two and a half days and questioned. I'm sure he was questioned about something else, too, but he was persistent in his reluctance to discuss the subject of his questions, and I think to constantly give somebody Miranda Warnings in the face of his repeated refusal to discuss his Miranda Rights, excuse me, to discuss the subject of the questions thereby exercising his rights, make a mockery of the Miranda Warnings themselves.

نت ه

The man's ultimately going to think the warnings have little value, since he doesn't want to speak, but yet is constantly interrogated. It's complicated why the homicide investigation that was going on, but that isn't before me.

So, for 5th Amendment purposes anyway, not 14th Amendment purposes, I'll grant the motion to suppress. Set this for trial now?

MS. WATSON: Yes, Judge.

MR. GOLDSTEIN: Could I inquire as to whether it's a bench or jury, your Honor?

MS. WATSON: Could we simply schedule it as if it were a jury until I have an opportunity to discuss it with my client? May I suggest a date of August 24th?

(A discussion was had off the record.)

THE COURT: So we can start on the morning of Wednesday the 25th. By agreement?

MS. WATSON: Yes. I don't have any objection.
