⁴ The Illinois Court of Claims Act, until recently provided that those exonerated prisoners who establish their innocence by an innocence pardon or a certificate of innocence were entitled to $199,150 if they served more than 14 years, which all of these men did. The statute also provided for a yearly cost of living increase, so in all probability most of these men received somewhat more than the $200,000 credited to each of them. More recently the $200,000 cap has been raised, allowing for the amounts awarded to Jakes, Gibson, Robert Smith, Walker and Jackie Wilson. These numbers do not reflect the tens of millions of dollars that the State spent housing these innocent men for a total of 367 ½ years.
